Our Mission

To help prepare underrepresented students for their future

EXCELLENCE – DEDICATION – COMMITMENT

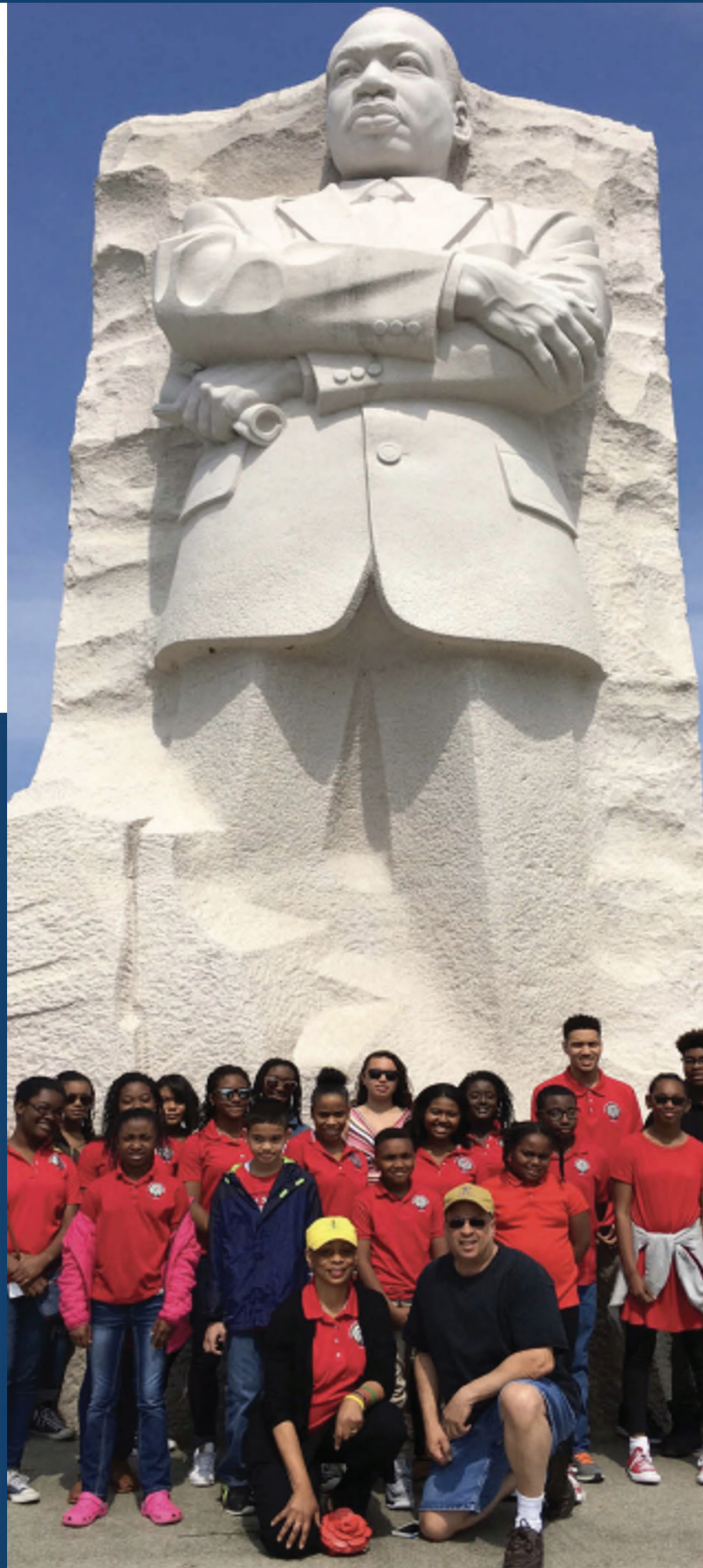

Our Purpose

Established in 2001, LEAP Forward is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization committed to helping underrepresented youth fulfill their educational goals. We promote STEM career fields; participate in STEM competitions; provide scholarships; sponsor a mentoring program for girls at a local high school; conduct college tours, assist with college applications, internships, and resume assistance; operate a traveling art and history exhibit; and offer encouragement and motivation. National Society of Black Engineers Jr. Chapter — Creative and Striving Hard to Succeed

NSBE Jr. Chapter – Creative and Striving Hard (C.A.S.H.) to Succeed, is a Pre-College Initiative (PCI) Program of the National Society of Black Engineers. The program is designed to stimulate an interest in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics fields, or STEM. The goal is to encourage students in grades K–12 to attend college and pursue technical degrees. Our mission is to increase the number of culturally responsible Black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally, and positively impact the community. C.A.S.H. was named National Chapter of the Year in 2017 and 2018. Visit <http://www.cashnsbejr.com>.

Scholarship Program

LEAP Forward administers over 25 scholarships for high-school seniors, vocational students and college students. Scholarships are sponsored by local families and organizations and supplemented by public donations. To date, over 350 scholarships have been awarded totaling more than $300,000. Destined4Success Destined4Success (D4S) is a mentoring program for underrepresented female students at Calvert High School in Prince Frederick, MD. The focus of the program is scholarship, service, talents, culture, and motivation to build a community of like-minded young women. D4S conducts workshops to share information about college preparation, goal setting, workforce experience, social-behavioral issues, appearance, and self-esteem. D4S also sponsors our annual Cultural Awareness Black History and Art exhibit at their high school. Follow Destined4Success on Instagram.
